POWELL, HOPTON, & Co.

SIX good Negro Houſe Carpenters, to be let out upon hire.

EDWARD LESTER.

BOSTON, May 7.

We hear, that the Duties on Tea, paid into the Revenue Chest, have arisen solely from the Colony of the Massachusetts-Bay. A great Sign that all the Colonies are perfectly acquiescent in the Acts of Trade, except the factious Bostonians!

It is said, that the several Ships which from Time to Time have sneaked out of this Harbour, are gone to Cruise on the Southern Governments, to prevent their trading like Freemen with People against whom the Laws of their Country have not prohibited their Commerce.

May 11. A Paragraph in the London Papers of March says, that Lord North's Situation grows more critical, as several of the Country Members, who had voted with the Ministry on the Principles of supporting Government, perceiving the dangerous Tendency of the Royal Marriage Bill, are falling off from him. Sawbridge renewed his Motion for Leave to bring in a Bill in Favour of Triennial Parliaments, and spoke finely upon it. The Desertion of our Friends and utter Extinction of Opposition to Tyranny and Corruption seems to be affirmed with as little Foundation on one Side the Water as the other. There will always be Scoundrels who would supply Enemies with Warlike Stores for a very small Advance---there will be Men who cannot realize the Mischiefs a Subversion of the Constitution would involve us in, and others so mean as to conclude the Cause is safe in the Hands of those able and industrious Patriots who have apparently devoted themselves to defend it, and therefore determine to enlarge their Connections, and enjoy the Satisfaction which arises from a general Friendship, or, as it is commonly expressed, a standing Fair with every one.---But praise to the Supreme Director of all Things, there will ever be Men who feel the Necessity of acting uprightly, and commending Honour, Humanity and true Patriotism, to the Admiration of Mankind, by their glorious Examples and disinterested Exertion to save a sleepy Generation, nodding indeed on the Brink of a Gulph, whose Hiatus is widening every Moment!

May 21. Yesterday the Inhabitants of this Town met at Faneuil-Hall, agreeable to their Adjournment, when the Committee appointed to prepare Instructions for the Representatives reported a Draft, which was unanimously received.

The Town have ordered an Additional Instruction to be reported on Friday next, whereby it is proposed to make the Judges of the Superior Court independant, both on the Crown and on the People. Should the Design be effected, it would be productive of great Good to this People.

NEW-YORK, May 4.

On Monday last Mrs. Farrari, removed from the old, and opened the spacious elegant new Coffee-House on the opposite Cross Corner, where the Merchants and other Gentlemen of the City, her usual Customers, assembled in a numerous Company, and were unexpectedly genteelly regaled with Arrack, Punch, Wine, cold Ham, Tongues, &c. Since that, the Gentlemen of two Insurance Offices, which are likewise removed from the old to the new Coffee-House, have each of them with equal Liberality regaled the Company present: The agreeable Situation, the Elegance of the House, &c. has occasioned a great Resort of Company ever since it was opened.

Yesterday Morning, about Half an Hour after Two o'Clock, a Fire broke out in a small Building adjoining the Distill House belonging to Mr. Hildreth, occupied by Messrs. Belitha and Springall; the Flames soon communicated itself to the Distillery, in which there was a large Quantity of Rum, Sugar, and Molasses, which burnt with great Fury, setting Fire to the neighbouring Houses, they being chiefly built of Wood, added greatly to the Rapidity of the Flames, some of the People having scarce Time to remove their Furniture, &c. and before Day-light, nine Dwelling-Houses, a Store, and Chair-House, were reduced to Ashes, and several others damaged. Mr. Hildreth's Loss is computed at £. 1500. Mr. John Freeborn, Ship-Chandler, is a great Sufferer. Mr. William Irwin, Tavern-keeper, saved very little of his Houshold Goods; Mrs. Jane Finley, who keeps a

May 17. Yesterday Week three Companies of the 16th Regiment, embarked for Albany, on their Way to Canada.

Monday last his Majesty's Ship the Deal Castle, Capt. Jacobs, sailed for Boston, from whence we hear, he is soon to sail for England.

Friday Afternoon Captain Quill arrived here in 18 Days from Cape Nichola, and informs, that on the 26th ult. a French Officer with a Party of Soldiers, boarded all the Vessels at the Mole at Night, under Pretence of looking for Deserters, and carried ashore the Captains Davis, Grennell, Tucker and Brown, and confined them in Goal for thirty Hours, but then set them at Liberty.

May 25. The following is an Extract of a Letter from Newry, in Ireland, dated March 31.---"The North of Ireland is in the greatest Confusion it ever was since King James's Time (occasioned, it is said, by the Landlords raising the Rents so high, that the Poor cannot live, by some late Laws for inclosing the common Lands, and other Impositions.) There are, it is supposed, in each of the Northern Countries, about 15,000 Men, who call themselves Hearts of Steel, assemble in the Evening at the Sound of Horns, march in the Night through the Country, take all the Arms and Ammunition they can find, go among the great Gentlemen and Landlords, oblige them to swear never to set their Lands at above Twelve Shillings an Acre, destroy all Leases taken at a higher Rent, and oblige the Landlords to give new ones at that Rate. All who join, they swear to be true to the King, and Hearts of Steel, with some other Articles, which are kept Secret; each Party have a Post-Office for their Letters. The whole Army of the Kingdom, both Horse and Foot are sent against them, but cannot subdue them, though many of their Out-Scouts, and all Persons that are suspected, or heard to talk of the Hearts of Steel, have been taken, and sent to Prison, so that the Goals are as full as they can hold, and the Country is lying perfectly waste, for not one Labourer is to be had, except old Men and Women: God knows how the Matter will end."

PHILADELPHIA, May 4.

Captain Burchmore, from Grenada, brings Advice, that Writs for the Election of Members of Assembly for the Island of Grenada, have been lately issued by his Excellency Governor Leybourne, which have been strenuously opposed by the patriotic Merchants, Freeholders, and others, of that Island, who complain loudly of the former and present illegal Proceedings of the Governor and Council; and they have presented a Petition to his Excellency, couched in the strongest Terms, setting forth, That according to the Laws of England, no Roman Catholic can be admitted as a Member of their Assembly; and intreat that his Excellency would recal the present Writs, and be pleased to issue others for convening an Assembly in the Form and Manner prescribed by the Laws of Great-Britain and that Colony. Likewise, a Protest was entered by 21 Freeholders, against all the Actings and Doings of the Assembly that meet in Consequence of the said Writs; and declare, that such Assembly will not be a lawful Representative of the Inhabitants of that Island, and consequently, will be without Power to make Laws, or do any other Act, Matter or Thing to bind the said Inhabitants. Yet, notwithstanding the above-mentioned Petition and Protest, we are assured, that on the 9th of March last, the General Assembly of Grenada met, and the Members present were sworn before his Excellency in Council.

On Friday the first Instant, a Number of Americans, Sons of King Tamany, met at the House of Mr. James Byrn, to celebrate the Memory of a truly noble Chieftain, whose Friendship was most affectionately manifested to the worthy Founder and first Settlers of this Province. After Dinner the circulating Glass was crowned with Wishes loyal and patriotic; and the Day concluded with much Cheerfulness and Harmony.---It is hoped, from this small Beginning, a Society may be formed of great Utility to the Distressed; as this Meeting was more for the Purpose of promoting Charity and Benevolence, than Mirth and Festivity.

Captain Walde, from Jamaica, on the 11th ult. off the Grand Commanders, about 10 Minutes before 8 o'Clock in the Evening, felt a smart Shock of an Earthquake, which lasted about Half a Minute.

May 11. From Bristol there is Advice of the Death of Abraham Taylor, Esq; in the 70th Year of his Age; formerly a worthy Inhabitant of this Place, and many Years Collector of the Customs for this Port.

The following TOASTS were drunk at Mr. Byrn's on the first Instant, by the Sons of King TAMANY.

1. The King and Royal Family. 2. The Proprietaries of Pennsylvania. 3. The Governor of Pennsylvania. 4. Prosperity to Pennsylvania. 5. The Navy and Army of Great-Britain. 6. The pious and immortal Memory of King Tamany. 7. Speedy Relief to the injured Queen of Denmark. 8. Unanimity between Great-Britain and her Colonies. 9. Speedy Repeal of all oppressive and unconstitutional Acts. 10. May the Americans truly understand and faithfully defend their Constitutional Rights. 11. More Spirit to the Councils of Great-Britain. 12. The great Philosopher Dr. Franklin. 13. His Excellency Governor Franklin, and Prosperity to the Province of New-Jersey. 14. His Excellency Governor Tryon, and Prosperity to the Province of New-York. 15. The Honourable James Hamilton, Esq; late Governor of Pennsylvania. 16. The Chief Justice of Pennsylvania. 17. The Speaker * of the Honourable House of Assembly of Pennsylvania. 18. The Recorder of the City of Philadelphia. 19. The pious and immortal Memory of General Wolfe. 20. The Pennsylvania Farmer. 21. May the Sons of King Tamany, St. George, St. Andrew, St. Patrick, and St. David, love each other as Brethren of one common Ancestor, and unite in their hearty Endeavours to preserve the Native Constitutional American Liberties.

* This Toast did not circulate.----The kind Genius that presides over American Freedom forbad it---and the Sons of King Tamany appeared averse in drinking it.

May 18. A Letter from a Gentleman in London to his Friend in Philadelphia, dated March 1, says, "Cooper and Horax have presented a Petition for an American Bishop, and are moving every Spring to support this pious Institution. Counter Petitions ought to be forwarded from every Opponent of this Design. Lord North wishes to know upon what Grounds to oppose it, and Hillsborough is not friendly to it; but the virtuous Duke of Grafton is, I am told, very zealous. Something should certainly be done, but I think no one Denomination of Dissenters should singly take the Weight of the Matter on them."

"A Philosopher of one of our Universities, has just published a Dissertation on the celebrated Mr. Franklin's Theory of Electricity, explaining the Leyden Experiment, with Illustrations of many considerable Exceptions against that applauded Theory. To the Leyden Electrical Experiment no Body is a Stranger, and it is well known, that Professor Musschenbrock was stricken with such Amaze and Terror, at its Effect, that in a Letter to Mr. Braumur, he says, he would not, for the whole Kingdom of France, make a second Repetition of that tremendous Experiment. Our young Author, after a succinct View of Mr. Franklin's Explication, points out the Inconveniencies of his Theory, at the same Time observing all the Respect due to that excellent Person, and shewing by what Modes and Amendments his Theory may be still retained.

May 11. Captain Covill, from Lisbon, on the 12th of April, about Midnight (having sailed the Day before) felt a very smart Shock of an Earthquake, which lasted near a Minute and a Half, [illegible] the Ship all the Time.

[illegible] the General Assembly met here, and next [illegible] the fourteenth of September next.

[illegible] Thursday Evening last was married the Hon. Richard Penn, Esq; Lieutenant Governor of this Province, to Miss Polly Masters, Daughter of the late William Masters, Esq; formerly a Representative of this City in General Assembly.

A few Days ago his Majesty's 21st Regiment, or Royal North British Fusileers, under the immediate Command of Major Sutherland, left this City and marched to New-York. During the Time this respectable Corps has been quartered here, they have uniformly behaved with an Order and Decorum that reflects the highest Honour on both Officers and private Men, and justly entitles them to the Character of Regular Troops.

Last Week Mr. Isaiah Mills of Salem, West-New-Jersey, who had been blind of both Eyes, with a confirmed Gutta Serena, was restored to his Sight, so as now to be able to read or to do any kind of Business, by Dr. Graham, Oculist and Aurist in this City.---Mr. Henry Sluytar, of Kent County, Maryland, was likewise perfectly cured of a stubborn Deafness and Noise in both Ears, with which he had been afflicted for many Years.------Mrs. Rivel, in Front-Street, who had been couched some Time ago, still enjoys her Sight perfectly clear and strong.----Thirty-four Persons have been cured of different Disorders in their Eyes and Ears by the same Gentleman, since the first of this Instant.---The Number of the Blind, Deaf and Dumb, which come from all Parts of the Continent for the Doctor's Assistance is, we hear, very great.

May 28. By Captain Scott, in six Weeks from Lisbon, we are informed, that about ten Days before he sailed, a severe Shock of an Earthquake was felt in that City, which greatly alarmed the Inhabitants; and about a Week afterwards they had another Shock, but not so violent as the former.

Last Thursday Evening Mr. Samuel Meredith, Merchant, of this City, was married to Miss Peggy Cadwalader.

June 1. On Monday last departed this Life, much lamented, William Hicks, Esq; Prothonotary of Bucks County, and one of the Governor's Council. A Gentleman, whose Candor, Sincerity, and peculiar Talents for pleasing in Company, endeared him to his numerous Friends, and whose perfect Knowledge and public Defence of the Liberties of the American Colonies, during their late Dispute with Great-Britain, rendered him dear to all his Countrymen.

Such was the Man, who now from Earth remov'd,
At length enjoys that Liberty he lov'd.

Captain Inkson, lately arrived here from Grenada, informs, that every Thing was in the utmost Confusion; that Governor Leybourne had issued a Proclamation, commanding all the French in the Island to be naturalized, or depart in 25 Days; that the Fort and several Parts of the Town of St. George, had been set on Fire, supposed by some of the French; and that a French Frigate had arrived, and anchored in the Harbour, who took on her the State of regularly firing her Morning and Evening Guns.

KINGSTON, (Jamaica) April 18.

The Modeste Man of War, which arrived at Port Royal on Friday last, from a Cruize, was, we hear, near being lost; for going down on the Main, to the Leeward of Carthagena, she unfortunately touched upon a Reef, where she beat her false Keel off, and was obliged to throw several of her Guns and Stores overboard, but luckily, after continuing there near forty Hours, she got off. And what is more agreeable to relate, they, by Aid of a new Refracting Instrument, invented by their ingenious and worthy Commander, got their Guns, Stores, and even their false Keel aboard. So that we hope to see it recorded in the future Annals of Naval History, that Captain Wheelock, of his Majesty's Ship of War, the Modeste, was the first Commander that entered a Port, with his Keel on his Deck.

CHARLES-TOWN, June 16.

About three Weeks since, a Ship belonging to London, Short, Master, going from Topsail Inlet in North-Carolina to Okerecock, to compleate her Lading of Naval Stores, was entirely lost on the Breakers of the last mentioned Place.

Since our last Captain Jesse Hunt, and some of his late Passengers, came to Town by Water, from Cape-Fear.

The Board of Commissioners at Boston, have appointed George Roupell, Esq; Collector of his Majesty's Customs for this Port, in the Room of the late John Hughes, Esq.

The Schooner Dove, William Wallis, Master, from this Port for New-York, is cast away on the South Side of Long-Island; the Vessel and Cargo entirely lost.

In Captain Schermerhorn, from New-York, came Passengers Mr. George Eveleigh, Mr. John Smith, Mr. Joseph Marschalk, Mr. Aaron Simonson, Mr. Jeremiah Brower, jun. Mr. John Larey, jun. and sundry others.

Last Tuesday Night the Brig Prince of Wales, Captain William Moore, arrived here from Philadelphia, having made her Voyage in 24 Days; in whom came the Reverend Mr. Robert Stuart, for Prince George's Parish, and several other Passengers. ---The Captains Wright and Blewer, were to sail from thence for this Port, about the 10th Instant.

Wednesday last his Majesty's Ship Lizard, Charles Inglis, Esq; Commander, arrived here from a Cruize.

Saturday last his Excellency the Governor, returned here from the Frontiers, having had the Business finished of running the Boundary Line between this Province and North-Carolina.

The same Day his Majesty's Sloop Merlin, Patrick Fotheringham, Esq; Commander, arrived here from Jamaica.

The same Day Richard Beresford, Esq; and Daughter, returned here from New-Providence.

Yesterday the Sloop Active, Francis Dickinson, Master, arrived here from Jamaica, in whom came Passenger David Oliphant, Esquire.

Sunday last his Majesty's Schooner St. Lawrence, Captain Dundass, arrived here from a Cruize.

The Brig Neptune, William Thomson, Master, of this Port, is arrived at Jamaica, from North-Carolina.

Captain Earl is arrived at Rhode-Island, from this Port.

Yesterday his Majesty's Packet Boat Swallow, Captain William Copeland, sailed with the Mails for Falmouth.

Married,] Thomas Horry, Esq; to Miss Ann Brandford, Second Daughter of the late William Brandford, Esq.

In our last, we mentioned our most Gracious Sovereign's entering the 34th Year of his Age, which was a Mistake in a Figure, it should have been the 35th.

SUPPLEMENT to the SOUTH-CAROLINA GAZETTE, and COUNTRY JOURNAL.

TUESDAY, JUNE 16, 1772. No. 342. [Printed by Charles Crouch, in Elliott-ſtreet.]

HAMBURGH, MARCH 5.

THE 25th ult. Count Struenſee had his third examination. We are aſſured that the queſtions to be put to him are in number 630, and that in his three examinations he had not given anſwers to above 200.

WARSAW, February 25. An Eſtafette from Dantzick brings an account that the King of Pruſſia, on the repreſentations of the Senators of Poliſh Pruſſia, has ſent orders to General Belling not to exact more from the inhabitants of that Province than is abſolutely neceſſary to ſupport the troops, and to take away the piquets of Huſſars which are poſted in the environs of the town of Dantzick. We are further informed from that Duchy that the ſcarcity of proviſions is ſo great that the inhabitants can hardly ſubſiſt. The number of Ruſſian troops now in Poland is computed at 40,000 men.

February 26. Count Weſſel was arreſted while with the Confederates, by order of the Court of Vienna, as being one of the Chiefs in the conſpiracy againſt our Monarch.

ROME, February 28. Cardinal Perelli died here the 24th of laſt month; he was created Cardinal by Clement the 13th. This makes the third vacant hat in the Sacred College, beſides the five which the Pope reſerves in petto.

STOCKHOLM, February 28. The States have at length agreed about the Royal capitulation, and it appears that the King's coronation will be no longer delayed; it is even ſaid, that that auguſt ceremony may poſſibly take place in April next.

WARSAW, February 29. Captain Wrangel, who is this moment arrived from the Ruſſian army, has brought the important news, that the preliminaries of peace between Ruſſia and the Porte were juſt ſettled and ſigned at Count Romanzow's army, by that General and a Miniſter Plenipotentiary from the Grand Seignior, both duly authoriſed for that purpoſe by their reſpective Courts; and that afterwards the Ottoman Miniſter Plenipotentiary had diſpatched couriers to all the Courts that are at enmity with his, to acquaint them with that event.

AUSTRIA, February 29. It is reported here, that 12,000 Ottomans having paſſed the Danube near Giurgewo, the Ruſſians let them advance quietly, but afterwards ſurrounded and totally defeated them; and that their commander was wounded and taken by the Ruſſians, who conducted him to Bucharеſt.

COPENHAGEN, March 3. The Count de Struenſee has undergone his laſt interrogatory. The Count de Brandt was examined this day for the firſt time. 'Tis ſaid, that the Count de Struenſee has confeſſed to Dr. Munter, who has orders to viſit him in his priſon, that he always lived in the ſentiments of the famous materialiſt La Mettrie.

PARIS, March 9. Private letters from Copenhagen adviſe, that the Queen, who is in the Caſtle of Cronenburgh, is going to be baniſhed to another caſtle, much more diſtant from Copenhagen. According to the ſame advices, it is thought that the King of England, in conſequence of what he has ſince heard, will not concern himſelf in that affair.

HAMBURGH, March 10. They write from Copenhagen, that the Count de Struenſee betrayed great weakneſs during his examination; it moreover appears, that one may already foreſee what he and the Count de Brandt's fate will be, but prudence requires we ſhould wait a little longer, before we announce any thing concerning it. Thoſe advices add, that Colonel Penz, and the Architect Harſdorffer, are returned from Aalhourg, a caſtle in Jutland, where they had been making preparations, which make it preſumed that the Queen Caroline will be moved thither.

COPENHAGEN, March 7. The commiſſion of inquiſition is cloſely occupied in interrogating Count Brandt. The following has juſt appeared in one of the public papers of this city with reſpect to Count Struenſee: "It is very certain that Count Struenſee is convicted of more than one crime: He has confeſſed, in one of his examinations, that he has been guilty of high treaſon, in having, without his Majeſty's knowledge, [illegible] from the Cabinet, by which he has made many uſeleſs and dangerous changes. It is farther ſaid, that there has been found among his papers, in his own hand writing, an account, from whence it is ſtrongly ſuſpected that he has defrauded the Royal Treaſury of 100,000 rixdollars, for his own uſe, or that of his creatures. There is the greater reaſon for this belief, from there having been found in his bureau, actions to a very great amount; and his appointments, as Prime Miniſter, not amounting to 3000 rixdollars, he has been too ſhort a time in office to acquire fairly the before-mentioned large ſums."

WARSAW, March 4. The important news of the ſigning the preliminaries of peace between Ruſſia and the Porte is fully confirmed. We do not yet know the particulars, only that they are entirely to the ſatisfaction of the Empreſs of Ruſſia, and were ſigned through the mediation of the Court of Vienna. The ratification will take place at the next congreſs, but it is not yet known where it will be held.

PETERSBOURG, February 22. Admiral Knowles ſat out laſt Monday from hence, with the land and ſea officers who are appointed to execute an enterpriſe which is to take place in the Black Sea at the opening of the next campaign. The Empreſs has given the Admiral 600 rubles for his travelling expences, and has appointed his daughter to be one of her Maids of Honour. It is aſſured, that all the officers, before they go to the place of their deſtination, are to paſs through Jaſſy, to conſult with Count Romanzow, that they may, in concert with that General, take the ſureſt methods to ſucceed in their undertaking.

WARSAW, March 7. The Confederates have carried off Prince Gaſpard Lubomirſki, who was going to Reſzow, to marry the young Princeſs of Reſzow. This news was brought by an expreſs from Lemberg, and occaſions great concern for the fate of that Prince.

Though we are aſſured preliminaries are ſigned between the Ruſſians and Turks, yet both ſides are buſy in preparing for war. However, we flatter ourſelves, that it is only making peace ſword in hand.

COPENHAGEN, March 10. The Counts de Thott, Schack, and Renthlaw, Miniſters of State and Counſellors, together with the Baron de Juel Wind, and Counſellor Stampe, went to Cronenburgh the day before yeſterday, and returned yeſterday. Baron de Furſtenheim, Miniſter at the Court of London, is to be recalled and ſent to Peterſburgh; and it is aſſured, that he will be ſucceeded by the Chamberlain de Rantzou. The ordinance concerning baſtards, which was iſſued in 1771, is revoked, and the old ordinance reſtored, with this difference, that baſtards are not to be reproached on account of their birth, and ſhall be permitted to carry on any trade or buſineſs. Several other ordinances iſſued by the late Miniſtry are likewiſe daily ſuppreſſed.

RATISBON, March 9. The Court of Denmark has ſent a memorial to its Miniſters here, to inform the Diet, that the event of the 17th of January will make no alteration with reſpect to their allies.

CONSTANTINOPLE, February 3. The Porte begins to think ſeriouſly of curbing the ambition of Ali Bey, and driving him out of Syria and Egypt before he gets too ſtrong a footing there; on which account five or ſix Baſhaws have received orders to march againſt him with all the troops they can get together.

PARIS, March 16. Laſt Friday night all the plate was ſtolen from the church of the Capuchins in the ſtreet of St. Honore.

March 23. A fire broke out in the night of the 8th inſt. at the village of Paudeduit, in Picardy, which conſumed fourteen houſes. Four years ago that whole village was burnt down.

ROME, March 7. The Duke of Glouceſter, after having kept his apartment three days on occaſion of the death of his auguſt mother, went laſt Wedneſday to the Quirinal to pay a viſit to the Pope, with whom he had a long conference, after which the Holy Father charged his Major-domo to make a preſent in his name to his Royal Highneſs, conſiſting of two magnificent pictures, and a compleat ſet of copper-plate cuts repreſenting the different views of antient and modern Rome, engraved by the celebrated Piraneſi. This Prince has ordered the Sieur Maron, a famous painter, to draw his picture; he has alſo permitted Mr. Nevillon, an eminent Engliſh ſtatuary, to take a model of his buſt, in order to have it cut out in marble.

They write from China, that the Emperor of that vaſt empire had given the Miſſionaries leave to preach publicly, and that the word of God had been already announced with ſucceſs in ſeveral churches of the capital city of Pekin.

COPENHAGEN, March 14. At the requiſition of the College of the Finances, the Commiſſion of Inquiſition have laid before the Commiſſioners Praetorious and Koll, the papers found among the letters of the Counſellor of Juſtice, Struenſee, relative to money, which belongs to their department alone.

SAXE-GOTHA, March 10. This morning died, at his Palace of Fridenſtein, after a long and painful illneſs, in the 73d year of his age, his Serene Highneſs Frederick Duke of Saxe-Gotha, to the great grief of his ſubjects, over whom he had reigned near forty-years, univerſally beloved and reſpected.

LONDON, MARCH 20.

IT is ſaid that Lord Chatham has lately declared, that, in his opinion, the Bill for regulating the Marriages of the Royal Family is a more hateful ſtretch of deſpotiſm, than what the Middleſex Election was conſidered to be by the kingdom. "Parliamentary privileges, ſays his Lordſhip, is a ground upon which wiſe men have doubted, and good men differed." But in the preſent caſe, there can be neither difference nor doubt. The firſt principles of natural juſtice are obviouſly violated, when a King of eighteen is to controul the marriage of Princes who are twenty-five; and when the poſſible heirs of the Crown are to be laid under reſtrictions, from which the poſſeſſor is exempted, though his choice is of infinitely greater importance to the people.

The celebrated Monteſquieu affirms, that the principle of government is deſtroyed when a Prince miſtakes his authority, his ſituation, and the love of the people; when the firſt dignities are marks of the firſt ſervitude, and when great men have loſt all popular reſpect, and become the low tools of arbitrary power; or when men of rank have ſuch mean and abject ſouls, as to grow vain of their pompous ſervitude, and think that the ſame duty which devotes them to their King, exempts them from all duty to their country.---Who will not ſay that this is a true picture of the times.

MARCH 23. It is now whiſpered that the connection between a certain amiable Prince and a much celebrated woman of faſhion, will finally terminate on his return to thoſe kingdoms.

Extract of a Letter from Caithneſs, in Scotland, March 4.

"A very melancholy accident hath happened in this country: As a great company, to the number of ſixty-ſix men, were attending a funeral to a church yard on the other ſide of Loch Shein, in the Shire of Sutherland, which was then frozen over, they agreed to paſs over on the ice, which unluckily gave way, and they all periſhed."

Extract of a Letter from Glouceſter, March 16.

"Friday morning came on before Mr. Juſtice Nares, the trial of William Morgan, for the murder of the late Miſs Jones of Naſh. The trial laſted between four and five hours, when the Jury without retiring from the bar, and without any heſitation, found the priſoner guilty.----Sentence of death, and diſſection, was immediately pronounced upon him, and this day appointed for his execution. The numerous aſſembly before which he ſtood, the horrid circumſtances of the crimes with which he was charged, the awful ſentence pronounced upon him, and the very pathetic and affecting exhortation with which the learned Judge accompanied the ſentence, were not productive of any emotion in the priſoner. As he was charged with the moſt heinous offence, ſo he ſeemed to be hardened in the utmoſt degree.

MARCH 25. The following paſſage is taken from the ſpeech made by the Hon. Judge Nares when he paſſed ſentence on William Morgan, at Glouceſter Aſſizes for the murder of [illegible] a beautiful young perſon whom you knew intimately, and the manner in which the horrid deed hath been committed, are ſuch aggravations of the crime, that hiſtory hath not yet furniſhed us, and I hope to God, never will again, with a ſimilar inſtance of ſuch amazing cruelty, ſuch ſavage barbarity. It was no open or ſecret enemy, no ſudden aggravating provocation, that excited you to the commiſſion of it; it was your friend and your neighbour, and who was, almoſt at that very inſtant, breathing out from her benevolent heart the kindeſt wiſhes for your ſafety and preſervation. In ſhort, you have been that unheard of Ruffian, that hath murdered ſuch youth and beauty, ſuch innocence and virtue, as every other part of the human ſpecies would have flown to the protection of, and died to have preſerved."

MARCH 26. The article concerning the embarkation of the ten thouſand French is ſtrickly true, and that repeated conferences have been held with the French ambaſſador within theſe few days.

Extract of a Letter from Lurgan, in the North of Ireland, dated March 16.

"We are kept here in the utmoſt confuſion, occaſioned by an inſurrection in the lower kind of people, who have aſſembled together to the amount of 8000 and upwards. They form themſelves in two bodies, one they call Hearts of Oak, and the other the Hearts of Steel. The half of them are old ſoldiers, and have learned the reſt the regular exerciſe. Mr. Johnſon, Juſtice of the Peace in Guildford, had four of them apprehended, which the reſt hearing of, went to the goal, where the priſoners had been carried, in order to reſcue them. Upon their arrival at the priſon, they were informed that Mr. Johnſon had them removed to another place; upon which they immediately agreed to ſhoot Mr. Johnſon, and marched to Guildford with that intent. Mr. Johnſon being apprized of their deſign, prepared to receive them. On their arrival they attacked his houſe, when ſeveral of them were killed from ſhots out of the windows; but the people in the inſide were ſoon overpowered, and Mr. Johnſon made his eſcape through a back window, and ſwimming acroſs the Bann-river, a poor man helping him out on the other ſide was ſhot dead. In the attack Mr. Murrell, a Preſbyterian clergyman, who came to dine with Mr. Johnſon, was killed, as were ſeveral of Mr. Johnſon's ſervants. The party of Highlanders quartered in Belfaſt had an engagement with them, but upon their Captain being dangerouſly wounded, and ſeveral of the men killed, they thought proper to retreat. There are three regiments of foot and one of horſe arrived from Dublin. When they got as far as Newry, two regiments of the foot and the regiment of horſe ſtopped there, in order to conſider the propereſt method to quell the rioters; but the Captains of the other regiments of foot being obſtinate, marched on with their men, but were ſoon obliged to retreat back. It is feared there will be bloody work amongſt them, the mob being determined to ſtand againſt the regulars. Indeed the poor are much to be pitied, many families being obliged to ſleep in the fields, and other ſuch places, owing to the great riſe in proviſions and rent of lands, which they and their fore-fathers had improved."

MARCH 31. Letters from Riga mention, that 14 large tranſports were loading there with timber, iron, cables and cannon, for Carthagena.

It is aſſerted that the Treaſury is in a more exhauſted ſtate at this time than for half a century paſt, in time of peace.

An account is juſt received of ſome encroachments having been made by the French on the coaſt of Gambia.

APRIL 3. Yeſterday the Hon. the Houſe of Commons agreed to the report of their reſolution of Wedneſday for granting 2,800,000l. to his Majeſty, to be raiſed by loans or Exchequer bills, to be charged on the firſt aids to be granted in the next ſeſſions of Parliament, and ordered in a bill purſuant to their ſaid reſolution.

They write from the Hague, that there are now building in the ſeveral ports of France, five ſhips of war of 84 guns, ſeven of 70 guns, nine of 50 guns, and eleven frigates of 30 guns each.

Twelve ſhips of the line are ordered to croize in the Bay of Biſcay.

APRIL 4. Thomas Bennet, who was caſt for tranſportation, for ſtealing a number of ſilver ſpoons, at the entertainment given by Sir Watkin Williams Wynne, at Shrewſbury, was poſſeſſed of an eſtate of 200l. per ann. beſides 4000l. in ready caſh, which he aſſigned over to truſtees for his ſon.

A Gentleman was lately at a coffee-houſe complaining that the Court ever ſince the beginning of the preſent reign, had never been uniform or conſiſtent in their behaviour, that they were continually changing of Miniſters, and conſtantly fluctuating in their meaſures.----You forget, ſays a Gentleman, two points which they have invariably kept in view, the diſgracing the great Whig Families which ſecured the Throne to George the Firſt, and the promoting and encouraging of Tories and Jacobites.

A correſpondent obſerves it is ſomewhat remarkable that the Royal aſſent ſhould be given to the marriage act on the 1ſt of April, of all days in the year, as if it was to ſhew that there are more April fools in the world beſides Squire Morgan.

Thurſday laſt, part of the baggage of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Glouceſter arrived in the Venus Frigate, and was carried to Glouceſter-Houſe, in Upper Groſvenor-ſtreet. His Royal Highneſs is expected home the 28th of this month.

By letters from Penſacola there is advice, that the French have poſſeſſed themſelves entirely of the Spaniſh trade at New-Orleans.

Some Spaniſh agents, as we are credibly informed, are now very buſy in engaging Britiſh ſhip-carpenters to go over to Cadiz, to be employed in the dock-yards of that kingdom.

APRIL 5. Laſt week ſome Gentlemen of fortune arrived in town from Guernſey, to ſolicit the grant of certain tracts of lands on the banks of the Miſſiſippi in North-America, with an intention to be ſettled with French Proteſtant families from Normandy.

It is ſaid, that the Portugal merchants of this city have within a few days, received commiſſions for goods to the value of upwards of 10,000l.

By a gentleman arrived in town laſt week from Breſt, we learn, that a Rear Admiral was to ſet ſail from that port in a few days, with three ſhips of 74 guns, two of 60, and three of 40 each, but that their deſtination was kept a profound ſecret.

They write from Paris, that they have received ſeveral private letters from Spain, importing that freſh troubles were breaking out in different parts of that kingdom, on account of the ſtarms lately eſtabliſhed by his Catholic Majeſty.

WHITEHALL, March 14. The King has been pleaſed to appoint Molineux Shuldam, Eſq; to be his Governor and Commander in Chief in and over the Iſland of Newfoundland and all the coaſt of Labrador, from the entrance of Hudſon's Streights to the River of St. John, which diſcharges itſelf into the ſea, nearly oppoſite the Weſt end of the Iſland of Anticoſti, including that Iſland, with any other ſmall Iſlands on the ſaid coaſt of Labrador, and alſo the Iſlands of Madelaine in the Gulph of St. Lawrence, as alſo of all his Majeſty's forts and garriſons erected and eſtabliſhed, or that ſhall be erected and eſtabliſhed, in the ſaid Iſlands, of Newfoundland, Anticoſti, and Madelaine, or on the coaſt of Labrador, within the limits aforeſaid.

March 28. The King has been pleaſed to appoint William Moore, Eſq; Attorney-General of the Iſland of Barbados in America, in the room of Henry Beckles, Eſq; deceaſed.

The King has alſo been pleaſed to appoint Edward Morſe, Eſq; Chief Juſtice of the Province of Senegambia in Africa, in the room of Chriſtopher Milles, Eſq; deceaſed.

The King has alſo been pleaſed to appoint John Fenton, Eſq; Provoſt Marſhal of the Province of Nova-Scotia in America.

ST. JAMES'S, March 15. The King has been pleaſed to appoint James Magra, Eſq; to be his Majeſty's Conſul in the Canary Iſlands.

March 21. The King has been pleaſed to grant unto James Macpherſon, Eſq; the offices and places of ſecretary and clerk of the council of his Majeſty's Province of Weſt-Florida, in and in the ſaid province.

March 24. The King has been pleaſed to grant unto John Foſter, D. D. the place of Prebendary of his Majeſty's Free Chapel of St. George, in the Caſtle of Windſor, void by the death of Dr. John Sumner.

BRISTOL, March 14. The inhabitants of this city go on with ſpirit, in their attempt to lower the price of proviſions, and have publiſhed propoſals for a contract for oxen. They have built a ſlaughter-houſe for killing the cattle they purchaſe, and lend the uſe of it gratis to any of the inhabitants.

GLOUCESTER, March 23. On Monday laſt William Morgan was executed here purſuant to his ſentence. Before his trial, he had been very diſſolute and drunken; but at the approach of death, he expreſſed great horrors of eternity, and prayed with ſeeming fervency.

DUBLIN, March 9. This day in our Houſe of Commons, the Speaker having expatiated on the neceſſity of aſſerting the dignity of parliament, moved the Houſe to come to the firſt of the following reſolutions. This produced ſome debate, and Mr. French intreated the Speaker to communicate other reſolutions he might have to offer, that gentlemen might know the whole ſcope of his intentions. The Speaker very readily and candidly complied, and read five reſolutions to the following purport.

1. Reſolved, That in the month of November, 1769, ſeveral members of the Houſe were fined in the Court of King's Bench, in the ſum of 20l. for not attending to ſerve on a petty jury; and their ſeveral fines eſtreated in the Court of Exchequer.

2. Reſolved, That it is the duty of every member of parliament to attend the duty of the Houſe, and is puniſhable for neglect; and the compelling them to ſerve on juries, during the ſitting of parliament, tends to interrupt the buſineſs of the nation, is an indignity on the Houſe, and a violation of its privileges.

3. Reſolved, That it is the duty of Judges to take notice of the privileges of parliament, as the law of parliament is part of the law of the land.

4. Reſolved, That a Judge fining a member of parliament for non-attendance on juries, knowing ſuch to be a member, is guilty of an indignity to the Houſe.

5. Reſolved, That any Sheriff, or other officer, who ſhould levy ſuch fine, is guilty of a breach of privilege. Which were all agreed to.

March 14. The inſurgents in the North ſtill continue their outrages and riots, to the great terror of the inhabitants; it is hoped they will ſoon diſperſe, many troops of horſe and dragoons, and companies of foot, being ſent for that purpoſe. They are very numerous, and many of them well diſciplined in the uſe of arms, having ſome old ſerjeants and diſbanded ſoldiers among them. The party of theſe Hearts of Steel was led on the attack of Mr. Johnſon's houſe by a broken ſerjeant, with above 2000 men, who attacked the houſe in front and rear, when many ſhots were fired on both ſides, and about 30 of the Hearts of Steel were ſhot; nine of whom have ſince died of their wounds, and the others are in a dangerous way. The army has got ſafe to Newry, and the neighboring country, and are in purſuit of theſe lawleſs people.

March 17. Leave is given by our Houſe of Commons to bring in heads of a bill for the relief of poor infants, who are or ſhall be deſerted by their parents.

Leave is given to bring in heads of a bill, to empower the civil Magiſtrates in the province of Ulſter, to take up and ſecure all arms in the poſſeſſion of perſons ſuſpected of being concerned in any inſurrection in that province.

A few days ago was married the Right Hon. Frederick Lord Boyne, to Miſs Smyth, daughter of Thomas Smyth, Eſq.

WATERFORD, April 7. By a private letter from a Gentleman in the North, to his Friends in this city, we learn, that whole villages have embarked at the different ports there for America, and that numbers of others were preparing to follow their example; ſo that in a ſhort time we ſhall ſee that once flouriſhing province reduced to beggary, and entirely depopulated.

6 w ANCRUMS & CHIFFELLE.

TO BE SOLD by private Contract,

A PLANTATION at Stono, in St. Paul's parish, within eighteen miles of Charles-Town, containing about one thousand three hundred and fifty acres, divided into two compact and valuable tracts, bounding to the east on the west branch of Stono river, to the south on land of Mr. Archibald Stanyarne, to the west on land of Mr. James Stanyarne, to the north on land of the said James Stanyarne, Mr. Robert Rowand, and Charles Elliott, Esq. Both the swamp and high land are of the best quality, equal to any, and superior to most, in that parish, being contiguous to the river. The low grounds may be drained, planted, and kept dry, when all others higher up the swamp are overflowed. The uncleared swamp is well stocked with excellent cypress. On one of the tracts is a good landing that admits boats of large burthen, within half a mile of the barn and rice fields. There are on the said tract a new rice machine, all necessary buildings, and a considerable quantity of swamp and high land in proper order for planting.

Credit on interest, will be given for any reasonable number of years. Persons desirous to know further particulars relative to the said land, or purchase both or either of the above tracts, or a part of the above plantation divided in any other manner, may apply to JOHN RUTLEDGE.
